

PACIFIC DISTRICT Sons of the American Revolution

Offering a 1777 Charleville Musket

Sep 1, 2014 to April 25, 2015

The Pacific District of the Sons of the American Revolution offers tickets on a drawing for an original 1777 Charleville AN IX flintlock musket. The Charleville muskets were used in large numbers by American Colonists and French troops fighting the British - the French arms that saved the American Revolution.

There will be no more than 500 raffle tickets sold at $5.00 each.

Refurbished to 1777 standards by:

-Col. Bob Smalser,
Restoration Gunsmith

This beautiful French Charleville Model 1777 restored musket with bayonet is a good example of a main infantry weapon of the Revolutionary War. Seven million were made between 1777 and 1840. Not a reproduction, but an original 1777 AN IX ca1810 with new European walnut stock, new 66 cal. barrel, assembled in the 1950's in Liege, Belgium and refurbished to original armory standards. A brass flash guard is fitted over the pan and touch-hole and a leather sling is attached. Five feet long without the bayonet, and six feet four with. The piece was test-fired by gunsmith Bob Smalser of WASSAR. Retail value $1,200.00

Ticket purchase information

Tickets will be sold by the Pacific District SAR at all ORSSAR, WASSAR, and AKSSAR individual chapter meetings during Sep 1, 2014 to Apr 25, 2015.
